

No1. Aquatic Sand and Gravel Mining Policy

The CFA is opposed to sand and gravel extraction from the beds of freshwater streams and lakes, unless a proper process of environmental-impact assessment and management has demonstrated a clear need for remedial dredging or extraction in a particular waterway.